ORDER :

The District President, A.P., Noor Basha Muslim Welfare Association, Ongole has submitted a representation in the ref. 1st cited, alleging that Shaik Hussein Basha, S/o Mastan of Darsi Village has obtained Dudekula caste EC-B certificate dated 4-3-2004, from the Mandal Revenue Officer, Darsi and submitted application for the post of School Assistant in DSC-2008, though actually he belongs to OC Muslim community and requested for enquiry on the caste status of Sri Shaik Hussain Basha for taking action against the false certificate obtained.

The District Educational Officer, Ongole has informed that Sri Shaik Hussein Basha, S/o Mastan, has applied for School Assistant in DSC-2008 under Dudekula caste EC-B, issued by the M.R.O., Darsi and requested to verify the genuineness of caste status claimed by the applicant.

The Tahsildar, Darsi was addressed in the ref. 3rd cited to enquire the caste status of Sri Shaik Hussein Basha S/o Mastan of Darsi Village and Mandal and send report with record of enquiry.

The Tahsildar, Darsi has sent her report in the ref. 4th cited, stating that Sri Shaik Mastan father of Sri Shaik Hussain Basha is working as Officer Sub-ordinate in Veterinary Department, Darsi and he belongs to Muslim community as per Service Register and his native place is Pasupugallu Village of Mundlamuru Mandal, The Mandal Revenue Inspector has also reported that, the individual's primary education was completed at Marella Village of Mundlamuru Mandal and now residing at Uppalapadu Village of Kondapi Mandal; Sri Shaik Abdul Salam S/o Jabbar Miya, Masjid Nayab Quazi has stated that Sri Shaik Mastan belongs to Muslim O.C. community he used to come to Masjid for Namaz, his elder son's marriage was performed in Masjid; the President Noor Basha Welfare Association, Darsi informed that Shaik Hussain Basha S/o Mastan do not belong to Noorbasha (Dudekula) community; Sri Shaik Mastanvali, S/o Moulali of Darsi working as tailor, who is nephew of Shaik Hussain Basha has stated that, while his family is residing at Marella Village of Mundlamuru Mandal, his caste was recorded as 'Dudekula' caste in school records, because majority of Muslims who are residing in the village, belongs to 'Dudekula' but originally they belongs to Muslim, O.C. community.

The Tahsildar, Darsi has enquired and recorded statement of Shaik Hussain Basha, who is alleged to have obtained bogus caste certificate where in he has stated that, during his Elementary education at Marella Village, at the time of his admission into School, his caste was mentioned as 'Dudekula' he came to know the fact while he was studying Intermediate and he contacted elders for rectification, but they have stated that caste can not be changed at this level, and hence, he continued his education up to Degree with the same caste. After that he applied for DSC-2008 teacher post under BC-B category with the certificate held by him. Finally he stated that, this mistake was done due to lack of knowledge but not intentionally, and he has no objection to cancel his 'Dudekula' B.C.-B dated 4-3-2004 caste certificate.

The Collector vide ref. 5th cited, has entrusted the caste claim of Sri Sk. Hussain Basha to the D.L.S.C. After due discussion of D.L.S.C. on 13-8-2010, the Joint Collector and Chairman D.L.S.C. has issued Notice in Form - VI on 13-9-2010, to Sri Shaik Hussain Basha to attend before the D.L.S.C. on 24-9-2010. The verification proceedings were held on 24-9-2010. The individual Sri Shaik Hussain Basha appeared before the DLSC and submitted a letter to the Chairman, DLSC along with his original caste certificate dated 4-3-2004; the contents of the representation were similar appear as in the statement, recorded before the Tahsildar, Darsi on 12-5-2010, and finally requested to excuse his lapse in obtaining caste certificate as 'Dudekula' caste B.C-B as a mistake of fact.

The members of D.L.S.C. have also considered the contents of the report of Tahsildar, Darsi and representation of Sri Shaik Hussain Basha and his request and resolved that, no further verification is necessary as the certificate holder himself has confessed that he obtained B.C-B Dudekula caste certificate due to his caste being recorded as Dudekula in primary school records and requested for pardon and decided to recommend for cancellation of B.C.-B Dudekula caste certificate issued by the Mandal Revenue Officer, Darsi dated 4-3-2004.

Basing on the report of the District Level Scrutiny Committee, a Notice vide ref. 10th cited was issued to Sri Shaik Hussain Basha S/o Mastan, U/s 5(1) of the Act 16 of 1993, affording to avail an opportunity for submission of representation if any within 7 days. He has submitted a representation dated 22-1-2011 in the ref. 11th cited. The Individual represented that "he has no objection to cancel his Dudekula caste, BC-B certificate, caste certificate obtained due to innocence of his parents". He himself accepted to cancel his Dudekula BC-B caste certificate.

Hence, I Sri Kantilal Dande, I.A.S., the Collector and District Magistrate, Prakasam District, Ongole in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 5(1) of A.P.
